Demos Win First Round On Rules Body's Power

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—(P)-Administration Democrats beat down a Republican-Southern Democrat coalition in the house today and rammed through a rules change to curb the power of the rules committee. The administration proposal was adopted by voice vote after its foes lost a test roll call vote, 275 to 142. to 142.

The test came this way:
Rep. Sabath (R-III) offered the administration-backed rules plan, then moved that it be considered under procedure barring amend-

His motion carried on roll call. Republicans and some Demorats wanted to amend the proposal and keep the rules committee's power intact. In the past, a coalition of Southern Democrats and Republicans on the rules committee has effectively blocked many administration bills.
"I offer a substitute; we have a right to be heard," shouted Rep. Rankin (D-Miss) as Sabath moved to cut off debate and block amendments."

There was no debate over the new plan. Sabath's motion cut it new plan. Sabath's motion cut it off.

The new rules provides:

Whenever a legislative committee approves a bill and the rules committee fails to clear it for a house vote after 21 calendar days, the chairman of the legislative committee may call it up regardless of the rules group's attitude. He shall be recognised by the speaker to call up such a stalemated bill—if he wants to do so—on the second and fourth Mondays of any singular.

The effect of the rule is that the The effect of the rule is that the speaker and the committee chairman man man administration Democrats, will have the part of the power and what bills are to be said what bills are to be said what bills are to be speaker.

Smith Says Some Reds Would Like "Conciliation"

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3—(R)—Waiter Bedell Smith, ambassador to Russia, said today he imagines some Soviet leaders prefer a "conciliatory" attitude toward the United States rather than a "policy of harshness."

Smith made the statement after a call on President Truman during which he said he asked to be re-lieved of his post as ambassador. Newsmen asked him whether he could identify "certain leaders" of the Soylet who, Mr Truman said recently, are "exceedingly anxious" to reach an understanding with this country.
Smith said he could not. He then added:

"I imagine there are in the Soviet Union certain leaders who are

Union certain leaders who are more desirous of being conciliatory; than they are of pusuing the policy of harshness we have encountered. But it would be difficult to say who they are."

Als for my "cleavage" within the politburo, he said:

"There is never a cleavage in the politburo. There are certain differences of opinion before policies are made and adopted. But as to a cleaverage, under their setup that is a little bit beyond the scope of my imagination."

"Smith said he hopes Mr. Truman will grant his request to be relieved of his Moscow post.

Smith went from the White House to the airport to fly to Pittsburgh where he will receive a degree tonight. He plans to go from there to Florida on a vacation.

If the first two days of January,

1949, are indicative of things to come, the police department can look forward to little rest. The New Year weekend, officially concluded Sunday, was a rough one with everybody trying to see the inside of Corsicana's cheerless little clink.

Records of the police department indicate practically everybody did something naughty. Sunday's slate, at that, was better than Saturday's, although the former had more variety. There was a speeder, three reckless drivers, two of whom didn't have driver's licenses, a drunk, and a man accused of slapping his wife around.

Saturday was the day. Eleven persons were jailed for being drunk, with one being charged with affray. A speeder was cited. Two of those charged with drunkenness were fined $50 each, quite a hangover in itself.

Newer, Shorter Roads To Health

By W. P. BROWN Of Johnson's Pharmacy

In the past a long convalescence was the accepted thing after an operation or illness.
Today, in the face of new medical knowledge and with the discovery of better, quicker healing drugs, the road back to health is shortened.

Many of the potential dangers which were always a part of every operation have now been virtually eliminated by these medical advancements. Your doctor's knowledge and skill can help you hack to good health sooner, providing you follow his advice faithfully.

The medicine he prescribes should always be purchased from a pharmacist with a reputation for excellent prescription compounding.

Mother And Baby Killed In Crash

M'KINNEY, Jan. 3.—(P)—A mother and her five-month-old baby were killed in a traffic accident here about 2:30 a. m. today. The husband, James C. McGinnis and a four-year-old daughter, also in the car, escaped injury.

The car reportedly overturned at a highway intersection. Patrolman Bill Day and Police Sergeant Weldon Davidson investigated. They blamed a heavy mist which made the highway slick for the accident.

Dr. G. L. Morelock of Nashville addressed the conference of laymen, pastors and district stewards at the First Methodist Church here.

Wen H. Clark, head football coach at Navarro Junior College, was named "Coach of the Year in the Texas Junior College Athletic Conference" Saturday at the annual meeting of the Texas Sportswriters Association.

A seven-story brick building in Chicago was moved 85 feet by construction men, without interruption of elevator, telephone or light service to the occupants within, and while business in the building went on as usual.

An automobile struck Miss Geraldine Fox, an employee of a local ice company, as she crossed West Seventh Avenue here. She was not injured seriously.

This signal honor came to the drawing, mild-mannered mentor of the Navarro Bulldogs in the third year of his tenure at the local junior college.

Wins Over Frankle

He took first place in the voting over Coach Johnnie Frankle of the Wharton County Ploneers.

Navarro and Wharton met on Tiger Field here in December for the championship of the conference. Wharton won, but an ineligible player cost the Ploneers the title, and the conference had no official champion for the 1948 season.
